SA Metropolitan Fire Service

Free, post pageant fun at MFS Open Day!

Friday, 8 November 2013

Looking for something to do straight after the Pageant? Come along to the MFS Open Day!

Join us for free, post pageant family fun as the Metropolitan Fire Service (MFS) opens the doors to Adelaide Fire Station at 99 Wakefield St between 11.15 am and 2.30 pm on Pageant day (Saturday, 9 November).

Meet our dedicated firefighters and staff, have a close-up look at fire appliances, view road crash rescue training and Urban Search and Rescue (USAR) abseiling demonstrations.

Highlights of the day include:

- An elevated work platform rescue exercise and rope rescue from heights
- An Urban Search and Rescue (USAR) display
- A close look at our fire fighting appliances and equipment
- Discover common causes of house and other structure fires and how to prevent them
- Learn how your family can prevent or survive a house fire, including how to escape a fire
- Find out what a fire fighter faces at a fire through computer simulation
- An insight into hazardous substance response
- An interactive child fire safety education display, including the 'Stop, Cover, Drop and Roll' game
- Road crash rescue demonstrations.
- View our new Wall of Remembrance unveiled during our 150th anniversary celebrations.

We look forward to seeing you at MFS Open Day at Adelaide Fire Station, 99 Wakefield Street, Adelaide on Saturday, 9 November 2013 between 11.15 am and 2.30 pm. Spread the word, invite your family and friends!

For media enquiries and interviews call the MFS Media Line on (08) 8204 3770

If MFS Open Day is a day affected by extreme heat, the MFS will modify activities and displays to ensure the comfort and safety of visitors and staff.
